Safety Method Statement

The Safety Method Statement sets out safe systems of work for hazardous operations. It should be included in the construction H & S plan together with any subcontractors' safety method statement It should clearly show how the work will be supervised, how it will be monitored and provide practical control measures. It should include protective equipment requirements and explain first aid and
Read more at Method Statements
Work Activity/Task:		Project Name/No:
Supervisor:		Principal Contractor:
Prepared by:		Date / Control Number:
	Plant and Equipment Required	Training Requirements
Describe the Plant and Equipment that will be used for the job(s).		Note the training requirements. These might be part of the hazard controls or basic training required for all job e.g. heavy lifting.
Job Step	Potential Hazard	Controls
Describe the job or activity.	Enter the potential hazard e.g. Electric Shock.	Enter the controls that will be put in place to manage the job step and avoid the potential hazard.		